

DOE SULLIVAN CAN'T "WORK" THE TEMPERANCE VOTERS.

Stanford Pastors Well Satisfied
With Harvey Helm's Position on Temperance Matters.

Judge Sullivan, of Richmond, baffled at every turn, in his efforts to win the democracy of the Eighth congressional district, from their loyalty to Harvey Helm is now putting forth the last effort of a losing candidate and is resorting to the extreme which is oftentimes calculated to win votes when the people have refused all other claims of a discredited candidate. He is endeavoring to ride the temperance sentiment in the Eighth district into Congress upon the trumped up allegations that the whisky people are behind Congressman Helm, and the further consideration that he—Sullivan—is responsible for most of the temperance laws now upon the statute books of Kentucky.

Notwithstanding the facts in the case, notwithstanding that Congressman Helm declared himself as favoring the measure in the national congress which the temperance people most ardently desire enacted into law and which he, himself has never yet so far as we have seen, publicly declared himself as favoring, Judge Sullivan is now attempting through the medium of personal letters to the voters all over the district, to delude them into the belief that he is the only dyed-in-the-wool temperance candidate while, on the other hand he would have the people believe, it seems, that Harvey Helm is the candidate of all the distillers, brewers and grog shop men in the whole state of Kentucky, and that the temperance people of the district will have nothing to gain and everything to lose by the election of Mr. Helm.

Just what the temperance leaders of Lincoln county think of this self seeking assumption of the distinguished candidate from Madison, is shown by the following statement, signed by the ministers of Stanford, Mr. Helm's home:

What Temperance Leaders Here Say
Stanford, Ky., July 22, 1912

We, the undersigned ministers of the christian churches of this city and county, do hereby state that we are perfectly satisfied with the position of the Hon. Harvey Helm upon the Shepard-Kenyon bill now pending in Congress, the passage of which is earnestly desired by the temperance people.

The real temperance people of Lincoln, of whom it is one and for whom the Interior Journal counts itself qualified to speak, have no patience with any candidate who is a temperance man because he thinks it is popular and will win him votes. They are tired to death and thoroughly disgusted with having various and sundry candidates going up and down the length and breadth of the land, saying in effect, "Behold me, I am a good temperance man, therefore give me an office." We believe that the people as a whole are sick of these "prohibitionists for politics only" who prate of what they have done for the "cause" and when a race for office comes on, use that as the chief argument for their election.

No matter what issue comes before the people, "professional prohibitionists" like these, jump into it with both feet foremost and demand to be given a front seat in the grand stand because they are "temperance men." They think that this should entitle them to all the offices and all the honors and because they may have voted dry in the last local option election, or voted in the legislature for some county unit bill, they should be given all preferment, while their opponents who did not calculate with such cunning upon the political advantages involved, should be handed the cold shoulder all around.

The Interior Journal is a temperance newspaper at all times. It's editor never voted for whisky in his life and never expects to, and he did what he could in his humble way to keep whisky out of the county in the recent local option election. He never expects, however, to use that as an argument why he should be elected to office and has no patience with those "professional prohibitionists" who are now doing just such a thing. The democrats of this part of the state have before this seen the temperance sentiment of the people played upon by vote hunters and they have usually seen the nigger in the woodpile with unerring perspicacity. We believe that they will do it again in this case. Judge Sullivan can't fool the temperance democrats of this district. They've seen this game played before, and are not going to stand for it.

All One Way At Lancaster

Lancaster, July 22.—Congressman Helm had the crowd completely with him at all stages in his joint debate with Judge Jere Sullivan here Monday afternoon. The latter was accompanied here from Richmond by about a dozen friends, but the local admirers of Helm outnumbered them so that the crowd seemed all one way. Local democratic leaders say that Garrard will go three or four to one for Helm in the primary Saturday, August 3.

Brummett—Murphy.

On last Wednesday, Rev. D. M. Walker said the words that made Miss Gustava Brummett and J. W. Murphy one. Miss Brummett is the daughter of Mr. Riley Brummett of this city. The groom is the son of Mr. Will Murphy, of Garrard county. They have the heartiest congratulations of their many friends.

Weaver—Dowell.

Mr. George Dowell and Miss Mary Weaver, both of Crab Orchard, were married Thursday, July 18. Mr. Dowell is a farmer of Crab Orchard, he and his wife are very popular among her friends, who join in and wish them much success through life.

Spradlin—Merritt.

Miss Nettie C. Spradlin, of Waynesburg and Mr. Lewis Merritt of Waynesburg, were united in marriage July 19. Mr. Merritt is a popular young man of Waynesburg, while the bride has a host of friends who wish them much happiness.

Presbyterian Church Officers Elected

At the regular services at the Presbyterian church Sunday John W. Rout was elected an Elder of the congregation, and William Grimes, a Deacon. Both are among the most prominent members of the congregation. They were chosen to fill the vacancies occasioned to the church's governing boards by the death of the late John J. McRoberts and George D. Wedren.

Buys a Handsome Cottage

W. S. Embry last week purchased of Wallace Walter the latter's handsome new cottage on Logan avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Embry will move into it at once and make their home. The price paid for the property was not made public.

ROOSEVELT MEN TO MEET HERE SATURDAY.

Progressive Republicans to Hold
County Convention, Select Delegates and Organize

The Roosevelt Progressives of the republican part will hold their Lincoln county convention here Saturday afternoon at half past one o'clock at the court house, when formal organization will be effected, delegates selected to the state convention and a county committee organized.

Prominent republicans all over the county who do not endorse the methods by which Taft was given the nomination at Chicago have already signed calls for the meeting. The Roosevelt men have taken as their motto "Thou Shalt not Steal," and such men as Judge John N. Menefee Jr., J. W. Williams, W. P. Kincaid, S. C. Lyon, Will Cordier, John Chappell, Craig Camden, Ben Lunsford, Gus Geisz, T. W. Napier, Simon Petrey, B. B. King, Sidney Dunbar, and others who have long been identified with the republican party, have come out openly for the Roosevelt ticket and will participate in the convention here Saturday. The leaders say there is much enthusiasm among the leading republicans over the county and they look for a large attendance at the convention Saturday.

Similar conventions will be held over the state. The Adair county Roosevelt men organized last Saturday in an enthusiastic convention.

ANDERSON TEMPERANCE PEOPLE FOR HELM FOR CONGRESS.

Two Letters Come Out Which Show
How Sullivan's Effort to Ride
Temperance Voters Into Congress is Failing.

Just how flat the efforts of Judge Sullivan and his friends to "ride" him to victory in the congressional race on the temperance issue, are failing, is again shown in two letters which have fallen into the hands of the I. J. The writer of the first letter, John W. Flowers, is said to be one of Sullivan's leaders in Adair county. The letters are perfectly self explanatory and speak well for themselves. They are as follows:

Flowers' Letter.

Columbia, Ky., July 16, 1912.
Pastor Presbyterian church,
Lawrenceburg, Ky.

Dear Sir:

I have been informed that the whisky people in Anderson county are supporting Helm for Congress and are opposed to Sullivan on account of his favoring the passage of the county unit law. Is my information correct? I have also been informed that Mr. Booth, Superintendent of the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Co., is managing Mr. Helm's campaign and I want to know if this is correct.

If the liquor people are supporting Helm, it looks like it is time for the temperance people to be getting busy. I inclose stamped envelope for your reply. Yours truly, (Signed) John W. Flowers.

The Reply

Lawrenceburg, Ky., July 20, '12
Mr. John W. Flowers,
Columbia, Ky.

Dear Sir:

Your letter addressed to the pastor of the Presbyterian church has been handed to me for answer. We are without a pastor now, but since I am an Elder of the church, I trust that I may be able to correct the false information that you have received.

In Anderson county the people are nearly equally divided on the temperance question that is, about half are wet and half are dry.

Both sides, with singular unanimity, are supporting Mr. Helm. I estimate that out of a democratic vote of about fifteen hundred, Mr. Sullivan would receive not exceeding one hundred or one hundred and fifty votes in this county, if the vote were taken today. Helm's supporters are drawn from both sides and the liquor question is cutting no figure in the contest.

Sullivan's leader in the county is Hon. William Dowling, Senator from this district, and himself a distiller, the son of a distiller, and one of the constant opponents of the county unit bill.

Mr. Booth, superintendent of one of the plants of the Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., and a Presbyterian by the way, will vote for Mr. Helm, I am told, but he is not managing Helm's campaign, and is supporting him rather lukewarmly.

In fact everybody here is for Helm with regard to race, color or previous condition of servitude. The question you raise has occurred to no one here. Helm has made an excellent impression on our people personally, and officially has been of real use. Among other things, he has caused an appropriation to be made for a public building a thing that we had sought in vain for years.

Do not understand me to be one of Helm's rank partisans. I am merely writing you the truth as I know it. Our temperance people seem thoroughly satisfied with Mr. Helm. It appears to us that if he is to be beaten it should be on some other ground than any thing we have heard or know in this connection. He appears right on the bill pending in Congress on the liquor traffic.

(Signed) J. W. MAHAN.
